

Deuteronomy 8:7 NIV

For the Lord your God is bringing you into a good land—a land with brooks, streams, and deep springs gushing out into the valleys and hills;

Deuteronomy 8:8-9 NIV

a land with wheat and barley, vines and fig trees, pomegranates, olive oil and honey; a land where bread will not be scarce and you will lack nothing;

Deuteronomy 8:9b NIV

a land where the rocks are iron and you can dig copper out of the hills.

Deuteronomy 8:15-16 NIV

He led you through the vast and dreadful wilderness, that thirsty and waterless land, with its venomous snakes and scorpions. He brought you water out of hard rock. He gave you manna to eat in the wilderness, something your ancestors had never known, to humble and test you so that in the end it might go well with you.

Genesis 2:5-6 NIV

Now no shrub had yet appeared on the earth and no plant had yet sprung up, for the Lord God had not sent rain on the earth and there was no one to work the ground, but streams came up from the earth and watered the whole surface of the ground.

Genesis 2:10 NIV

A river watering the garden flowed from Eden; from there it was separated into four headwaters.

Genesis 2:8a NIV

Now the Lord God had planted a garden in the east, in Eden; and there he put the man he had formed.

Genesis 2:8b-9a NIV

The Lord God made all kinds of trees grow out of the ground—trees that were pleasing to the eye and good for food.

Genesis 2:11-12 NIV

The name of the first [river] is the Pishon; it winds through the entire land of Havilah, where there is gold. (The gold of that land is good; aromatic resin and onyx are also there.)

Genesis 2:9b NIV

In the middle of the garden were the tree of life and the tree of the knowledge of good and evil.

Genesis 2:16-17 NIV

And the Lord God commanded the man, "You are free to eat from any tree in the garden; but you must not eat from the tree of the knowledge of good and evil, for when

Deuteronomy 8:11-14 NIV

Be careful that you do not forget the Lord your God, failing to observe his commands, his laws and his decrees that I am giving you this day.

Otherwise, when you eat and are satisfied, when you build fine houses and settle down, and when your herds and flocks grow large and your silver and gold increase and all you have is multiplied, then your heart will

Deuteronomy 8:17-18 NIV

You may say to yourself, "My power and the strength of my hands have produced this wealth for me." But remember the Lord your God, for it is he who gives you the ability to produce wealth, and so confirms his covenant, which he swore to your ancestors, as it is today.

Deuteronomy 8:10 NIV

When you have eaten and are satisfied,
praise the Lord your God for the good land
he has given you.
