

FIND THE GALLEY

Into the wilderness:

Mark 6:31b-32 NIV

...he said to them, “Come with me by yourselves to a quiet (lit. ‘wilderness’) place and get some rest.”

Mark 6:33 NIV

But many who saw them leaving recognized them and ran on foot from all the towns and got there ahead of them.

Compassion:

Mark 6:34 NIV

When Jesus landed and saw a large crowd, he had compassion on them, because there were like sheep without a shepherd. So he began teaching them many things.

Good Shepherd:

Ezekiel 34:25-26 NIV

“I will make a covenant of peace with them and rid the land of savage beasts so that they may live in the wilderness and sleep in the forests in safety. I will make them and the places surrounding my hill a blessing. I will send down showers in season; there will be showers of blessing.”

Crisis:

Mark 6:35-36 NIV

By this time it was late in the day, so his disciples came to him. “This is a remote (lit. ‘wilderness’) place,” they said, “and it’s already very late. Send the people away so that they can go to the surrounding countryside and villages and buy themselves something to eat.”

Mark 6:37 NIV

But he answered them, “You give them something to eat.”

Mark 6:38 NIV

“How many loaves do you have?” he asked.
“Go and see.”

When they found out, they said, “Five – and two fish.”

Mark 6:41-42 NIV

Taking the five loaves and the two fish and looking up to heaven, he gave thanks and broke the loaves. Then he gave them to his disciples to distribute to the people. He also divided the two fish among them all. They all ate and were satisfied.

“Give us this day our daily bread.”
