The High Priest's Palace

Mark 14:54 NIV

Peter followed him at a distance, right into the courtyard of the high priest. There he sat with the guards and warmed himself at the fire.

Mark 14:55 NIV

The chief priests and the whole Sanhedrin were looking for evidence against Jesus so that they could put him to death, but they did not find any. Many testified falsely against him, but their statements did not agree.

Mark 14:57-58 NIV

Then some stood up and gave this false testimony against him: “We heard him say, ‘I will destroy this temple made with human hands and in three days will build another, not made with hands.’”

Mark 14:61b-62 NIV

Again the high priest asked him, “Are you the Messiah, the Son of the Blessed One?”

“I am,” said Jesus, “And you will see the Son of Man sitting at the right hand of the Mighty One and coming on the clouds of heaven.”

Mark 14:67b NIV

“You also were with that Nazarene, Jesus,” she said.

Mark 14:68 NIV

But he denied it, “I don’t know or understand what you’re talking about,” he said, and went out into the entryway.

Mark 14:71-72 NIV

He began to call down curses, and he swore to them, “I don’t know this man you’re talking about”

Then Peter remembered the word Jesus had spoken to him: “Before the rooster crows twice you will disown me three times.” And he broke down and wept.

1 Corinthians 10:13 NIV

No temptation has overtaken you except what is common to mankind. And God is faithful; he will not let you be tempted beyond what you can bear. But when you are tempted, he will also provide a way out so that you can endure it.
