The Marshall Plan: 1948-1952

Matthew 5:9 NIV

“Blessed are the peacemakers, for they will be called children of God.”

Colossians 1:19-22 NIV

For God was pleased to have all his fullness dwell in Jesus, and through him to reconcile to himself all things, whether things on earth or things in heaven, by making peace through his blood, shed on the cross.

Colossians 1:19-22 NIV

Once you were alienated from God and were enemies in your minds because of your evil behavior. But now he has reconciled you by Christ's physical body through death to present you holy in his sight, without blemish and free from accusation.

Ephesians 2:14-18 NIV

For he himself is our peace, who has made the two groups one and has destroyed the barrier, the dividing wall of hostility, setting aside in his flesh the law with its commandments and regulations.

His purpose was to create in himself one new humanity out of the two, thus making peace, and in one body to reconcile both of them to God through the cross, by which he put to death their hostility.

Ephesians 2:14-18 NIV

He came and preached peace to you who were far away and peace to those who were near. For through him we both have access to the Father by one Spirit.
